Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Neighborhood Networks Community Connectors have organized neighbors in the Bayview, Cayuga, Merced Extension Triangle, Miraloma Park, OMI (Ocean View-Merced Heights-Ingleside), Parkmerced, Sunnyside, Midtown Terrace, Crocker Amazon, Potrero Hill, Other Sunset (via Senior Power) and St. Francis Square/Western Addition neighborhoods. These networks reweave communities of support focusing on food delivery, home repairs, healthy aging, breast cancer support, advocacy, and social activities. Working together with hundreds of neighborhood volunteers and the support of numerous community partners this year, we helped create connections for thousands of San Francisco neighbors. Neighborhood Networks. Every neighborhood finds its own mix of activities and interests to bring people together and build caring communities. In the past year, we coordinated community-building activities such as senior exercise classes, walking groups, and community forums. Neighbors also helped each other with countless little tasks, pitching in where needed. Connector network participants feel healthier and more connected: 95% of participants know one or more neighbors to help, 81% provided help to a neighbor, and 66% actually requested help. In April and May 2020 virtually all of our activities transitioned online and in fact an increasing number of people participate. Grocery Networks. In the past year, neighbors delivered tens of thousands of bags of produce and healthy foods, made over 10,000 visits, and over a thousand hours of phone calls and assistance to people who can't stand in line at local food pantries. Along with needed groceries, recipients are more connected and have gotten help with everything from home safety improvements to connections to more formal in-home care.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

We work in coalitions to forge solutions to the large and complex challenges of creating an inclusive San Francisco where people of all ages and abilities can truly live in community. Together, we make sure the voices of seniors and adults with disabilities are heard loud and clear. We build the power of community voices to shape decisions being made by our elected officials and agencies. We helped organize the Dignity Fund Coalition, which garnered over 110 endorsements to pass a first-in-the-nation ballot measure in 2016. The Dignity Fund increases annual funding for essential community-based services and supports for San Francisco seniors and adults with disabilities for the next 20 years. For too long, funding for essential services and supports for San Francisco older adults and people with disabilities has been a yearly battle, with good years and devastating years, depending on the City budget. We're now working to support enhanced planning and accountability in support of equity, choice, independence, and dignity. Francis Goldsmith Vision & Hearing Initiative. To counter the isolating effects of hearing and vision loss, CLC includes best communication practices and assistive technologies into all of our programs. Our Connectors and Trainers travel with communication tool kits filled with assistive devices to help keep all participants engaged. In the past year, our Trainers helped over 600 computer students with vision and/or hearing disabilities. And provided adult day services centers and low-income seniors with approximately $7,000 of assistive devices. Connections for Healthy Aging Workshops has moved online with a multitude of offerings with workshops that helps participants explore issues around aging, identify and strengthen networks of support, and advocate for themselves and others.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Computer Training & AccessDigital Literacy and Internet Access. CLC is a leader in helping seniors use technology and social media. Through the City's SF Connected program, we offer free workshops and drop-in computer tutoring at local senior and community centers. These classes create friendships and help our neighbors connect with friends and family, as well as healthcare, financial, government, and other information that is rapidly moving online. In the past year, our Trainers and volunteers provided thousands of hours of computer training to hundreds of low-income seniors and people with disabilities. Together with the Department of Aging and Adult Services and other community agencies, we are narrowing the digital divide. We also provide staff support and leadership to the San Francisco Tech Council, which is a multi-stakeholder group looking at ways to bridge the digital divide for older adults and adults with disabilities. In more recently, has add more focus on the intersection of employment and technology. We bring together neighbors, community organizations, academics, businesses, and City agencies to address issues that are too complex for any of us to solve alone. As part of our commitment to increasing technology access, we help lead and support the SF Tech Council, which brings together non profits, government, businesses, and academics to share ideas, increase resources, and develop ways to work together to close the digital divide.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4: We work in coalitions to forge solutions to the large and complex challenges of creating an inclusive San Francisco where people of all ages and abilities can truly live in community. Together, we make sure the voices of seniors and adults with disabilities are heard loud and clear. We build the power of community voices to shape decisions being made by our elected officials and agencies. We helped organize the Dignity Fund Coalition, which garnered over 110 endorsements to pass a first-in-the-nation ballot measure in 2016. The Dignity Fund increases annual funding of essential community-based services and supports for San Francisco seniors and adults with disabilities for the next 20 years. For too long, funding for essential services and supports for San Francisco older adults and people with disabilities has been a yearly battle, with good years and devastating years, depending on the City budget. We're now working to support enhanced planning and accountability in support of equity, choice, independence, and dignity. Francis Goldsmith Vision & Hearing Initiative. To counter the isolating effects of hearing and vision loss, CLC includes best communication practices and assistive technologies into all of our programs. Our Connectors and Trainers travel with communication tool kits filled with assistive devices to help keep all participants engaged. In the past year, our Trainers helped over 600 computer students with vision and/or hearing disabilities. And provided adult day services centers and low-income seniors with approximately $7,000 of assistive devices. Connections for Healthy Aging Workshops has moved online with a multitude of offerings with workshops that helps participants explore issues around aging, identify and strengthen networks of support, and advocate for themselves and others.
