Part III. Primary Exempt Purpose: To preserve, develop, and promote Downtown Camas; the social, cultural, and economic center of our community. This is done by revitalization and historic preservation efforts and education; providing monthly family-friendly community events; involving local students in activities providing cross-generational interaction; providing education about and exposure to local art and artists; providing connections for businesses to be educated and successful; and conducting activities that protect and enhance the beauty and safety of our downtown. Community education and outreach functions include weekly e-newsletters, walking maps, social media information, press releases, and surveys done regularly to educate the public on community issues and promote involvement. All of these efforts combat community deterioration and strengthen connections and education in our city.

Community Events: We host 11 First Friday events with from 1000 to 3000 attendance; Plant & Garden Fair with 7500-8000 attendance; Car Show with 5000 attendance; Girls' Night Out Charity Event with 350 attendance. Community connections and downtown businesses thrive during community events. We mentor high school students at each community event.

Weekly newsletters go out to 3300 subscribers. Over 5000 Facebook followers on our DCA page and thousands more on our event pages 5000 Walking maps and event calendars distributed in town and regionally annually.
