Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

In 2017 we regularly hosted events about entrepreneurial topics, impact investing, managerial skills, and other topics important to impact driven leaders. Impact Hub fostered a world class supportive, diverse, just, inclusive, and sustainable ecosystem for social entrepreneurship and mission driven organizations to help them to quickly scale their ability to do good and to solve the challenges in the world. Change does not happen in isolation, it requires collective action and Impact Hub provides the tools to make impact in the world through a collaborative coworking environment, member programming, mentorship, knowledge transfer, and a robust global network of like minded individuals. Part of the vision of the founders is to build a strong collaboration among organizations supporting impact innovators. To do that Impact Hub MSP is developing formal partnerships with key organizations making Impact Hub MSP the physical location to connect, work and learn, while the partners do what they do best whether it is programming, resource provision, industry community connections, etc. For those partnerships Impact Hub MSP is often the official address and meeting place and joint program offerings and blend services are offered. We also have leveraged relationships with some of the top institutions of higher education to further leverage learning relationships as well as to connect with the next generation of impact leaders. These include St. Bens & St. Johns, St. Thomas, Acara Institute at the College of Science and Engineering and Carlson Business School, U of MN, St. Olaf, Mpls. College of Art and Design and Macalester.
