Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Patients who have complex conditions are referred to our Guides for Understanding, Information and Access (GUIA) Program. The word GUIA means "guide" in Spanish, and is at the core of what the program does by creating pathways to care for patients with complex conditions (generally defined as those who need referrals to two or more outside specialists, or who have a chronic disease like hypertension and diabetes). GUIA works with our network of over 100 outside providers to connect the patient to needed care, and a team member accompanies the patient to appointments, acts as a patient advocate and helps patients navigate the burdensome financial assistance/charity care processes. The program also provides health education phone calls and home visits for patients managing hypertension and diabetes.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part XII, Line 1	The audited financial statements are prepared on a pure cash basis of accounting. From Note 2 of the financial statements "Basis of Accounting Basis of accounting determines when transactions are recorded in the financial records and reported on the financial statements. Casa's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the cash basis of accounting. This basis of accounting recognizes assets, net assets, revenues, and expenses when they result from cash transactions. This basis is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. As a result of the use of this cash basis of accounting, certain assets (such as contributions, pledges and other receivables, and property and equipment), certain revenues (such as gifts in kind), certain liabilities (such as accounts payable, loans, and other debts) and certain expenses (such as expenses for goods or services received but not yet paid) are not recorded in these financial statements." During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2018, Casa de Salud entered into an agreement with St. Louis University ("SLU") to lease a building owned by SLU to house its new Mental Health Collaborative. Improvements of $983,000 were made to the building, which was funded by donor contributions and grants with the balance of the required funds provided by Casa via a promissory note from SLU. As of June 30, 2019, the outstanding principal of note was $348,000. No asset for the leasehold improvements and no liability for the note payable to SLU were recorded on the balance sheet as of June 30, 2019 in accordance with Casa's basis of accounting. As no assets were recorded, no depreciation expense will be taken in the future and all expenditures related to the leasehold improvements were expensed as made.
