990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a&b The Executive Director's salary is determined by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. The committee reviews the work of the ED over the past year, and discusses the salary given his work review, time with the organization, comparison of salary to other similar organizations, and come to an agreement as to the new salary for the upcoming year. Other employees are evaluated by the Executive Director, and based on similar information as outlined above, determines a salary or hourly rate for that agreement will be reached as to the next annual salary of the employee

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c The Board members, and the Executive Director, are required to become familiar with the organization's policies and procedures manual, which includes a section for conflicts of interest. Once per year, each Board member, the Executive Director, and other employees are required to sign a conflict of interest statement. We are also frequently reminded of the conflict of interest rules at Board meetings, and ask if anything has occurred of late that would put any of the Board members or employees in a conflict situation
