Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Child Care * Every day matters in the holistic development and education of children. We provide a nurturing environment and caring teachers for over 890 children from infants through age 12 to learn social, emotional, physical and educational skills. YMCA Before and After School programs serve 28 schools, representing 8 different school districts throughout Butler and Warren County at various locations. Collaborations with Hamilton, Ross, Talawanda, Franklin Schools, Edgewood, Middletown, Fairfield, and local churches made these programs possible. * Highly trained teachers, fewer children per classroom and commitment to continuous improvement in early education programming earned 27 Step Up to Quality Stars or NAEYC (National Association for the Education of Young Children) for eight of our YMCA programs. Summer Youth Programs * Summer day camp is a time of active play and discovery for kids. We served 3,630 children each week for 11 weeks through educational experiences that prevented summer learning loss. * In a partnership with the City of Hamilton, the Central YMCA operated a free, summer program for 157 low-income youth at four city parks. Youth have the opportunity to enjoy their natural environments, build relationships with positive role models and participate in healthy activities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Description of other program services	from art lessons to growing vegetables, the size and scope of this effort is uniquely inspiring. The YMCA was approached by the City of Hamilton in 2012 with a request that the YMCA become the lead managing entity at the Community Center. The YMCA then invited multiple community partners whose combined expertise can serve the BTW Community Center with effective programming. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>* Character In Motion - Partnership with the Middletown City School District. This is a unique physical education class that has intertwined character values and life skills into PE class. This program is offered at the Y to all High School Freshman. Students receive class credit for participation. This program has helped to reduce truancy, engaged teens in critical conversations around the issues confronting them, and provided a positive, recreational outlet through physical activity. The Y also collaborates with community organizations for hands-on learning or speaker-led engagement.</li><li>* Midnight Basketball Teen Nights - created by a group of community members and brought to the Y to host/run. It was created to address the growing community concern that teens (6th-12th grades) didn't have a safe place to hang out during the summer months. In collaboration with the community, local non-profits and Middletown Division of Police, teens began to flock to the Middletown Area YMCA every other Friday night from 9pm-midnight to play basketball, listen to music and build relationships with caring community members and leaders. This is a direct tie-in to the Y's cause and three areas of focus.</li></ul>
