Form 990, Part III, Line 4a

Community-based In-home Services - Our programs make it possible for frail older adults and individuals of all ages with disabilities to remain independent in their homes and avoid unnecessary nursing home placement. Long-term care services include Meals on Wheels, medical transportation, homemaking help, personal care (bathing and grooming), medical equipment, home modification and more. In FFY 2016, we served nearly 20,000 individuals in our multi-county region with home and community-based services, including those helped through Ohio Medicaid waiver programs and via county tax levy programs in Butler, Clinton, Hamilton, and Warren counties. Medicaid waiver programs include PASSPORT (in-home care for ages 60+), Assisted Living waiver (assisted living care for ages 21+), Ohio Home Care Waiver (in-home care for ages 59 and under), and MyCare Ohio waivers (same services but available to eligible individuals enrolled in Ohio's integrated, managed care demonstration project). In-home care is preferred by more than 90 percent of seniors, according to surveys by AARP and other organizations. In addition, the cost for in-home care is, on average, about 1/3 the cost of care in a nursing home. Because taxpayers pay for most nursing home care (via Medicaid), in-home care alternatives are a valuable way to save public funds.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 3,917,528 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Community-based Senior Care Activities - These include a range of services that are designed to help older adults remain healthy, active, and connected to their communities. Additional services provide legal assistance to low-income older adults and protect the rights of those in nursing homes. Services are provided by senior centers and other community organizations that have contracts with Council on Aging. One of the most important services in this category is transportation. In FFY 2016, 4,855 seniors within our 5-county region received transportation services funded by Title III of the Older Americans Act. Most trips are for medical appointments, but transportation for shopping, other errands, and recreation is also provided. Funding for transportation falls far short of community need. Additional community-based services in FFY 2016 included congregate meals for 7,542 older adults, wellness programs for 34,882, legal assistance for 1,754, ombudsman representation for 8,900 individuals in nursing homes and receiving in-home care, and education instruction for 8,169 (including for people caring for individuals with Alzheimer's)

Care & Case Management Services- Licensed professionals assess, develop care plans, implement, monitor and coordinate a range of services and supports to maintain the independence, health, and safety of frail older adults and individuals of all ages with disabilities. Care managers make sure that clients and health plan members receive the right services, in the right amounts, at the right times. They manage cases to increase or reduce services depending on clients' changing needs. 20,000 Served

Information, Referral and Assessment Our Aging and Disability Resources Center provides unbiased information and connection to community resources for the general public, targeting those of interest to older adults, individuals with disabilities, their families, caregivers, and professionals, businesses, and civic leaders who work with them. As the Area Agency on Aging for five counties in southwestern Ohio, we are a central source of information and the place where many people make their first call to ask about what services are available to help older adults. We responded to 45,822 requests for information and referral in FFY 2016. Our call center is staffed with information and referral specialists and can be reached Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. at 800-252-0155 or online any time at www.help4seniors.org. Separate referral forms are available on our home page for general public inquiries and for referrals from professionals.
