There are 21 private bedrooms of approximately 100 sq ft and 1 double room of approximately 150 sq ft. Balanced family style meals are served three times a day and nutritious snacks are provided periodically through the day. Youth have access to computers, tutoring, employment support, transportation, basic life skills training, referrals to other community resources, anger management and conflict resolution training, substance abuse prevention and aftercare services.

HOUSING Unduplicated clients served = 93, Units of Service (bednights) = 17,882. Clients receive these services while living in one of our 24 in-house or 30 community apartments. The 24 in-house units provide supervised living with intensive programming providing the structure and stability the youth need before moving into a less structured program environment in the 30 community units. Community clients pay a portion of their rent & utilities until they graduate from the program and take over full responsibility of their bills.
