Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Whittington provides a wide array of home-based services to families and children in our community. These services include the following: Tutoring/Literacy Classes will allow individuals to achieve the education and success tools needed to become successful independent members of society. Clients receiving this service receive one on one and/or small group support in all academic areas by a highly qualified trained individual. Parent Education is a strength based service that identifies areas of need and focuses on short and long term goals to reduce safety risks for children. Whittington practitioners safely maintain children in their homes, preserve, support, stabilize and promote the well-being of families. They also help facilitate reunification of children back home. Please see Schedule O for further information.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Adoption Home Studies help to prepare the adoptive, foster and kinship home for the adoption journey. The home study process documents that the home (structurally, emotionally, etc.) is suitable for an adoptive placement. The process requires one-on-one meetings with prospective adoptive parents and several visits to the home. The home study prepares adoptive parents in understanding the commitment they are making to provide a permanent home for the child or children they will be including in their family. Our staff is committed to treating the family with dignity and sensitivity as we walk beside them through each step of the home study process. Services are at the convenience of the family, are performed in the home and completed within 90 days of referral. Please see Schedule O for further information.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Children's Mental Health Wrap-Around (CMHW) provides services for families with children and youth who have serious emotional problems. Caseworkers focus on providing extra help within the home. Services include transportation, training and support, consultive clinical and therapeutic services, respite care, funds for certain one-time purchases and habilitation. We provided 169.5 hours of service to 9 clients under this program during 2019.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X : FIN48 Footnote	The Organization is exempt from federal and state income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Organization is not classified as a private foundation. No provision for federal income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. There was no unrelated business income for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. The Organization recognizes the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the positions related to the potential sources of income subject to unrelated business income tax (UBIT). There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, line 4c (continued):	During 2019, seven (7) clients participated in 485.25 hours of home study assessment to earn eligibility for adoption. Child-Preparation services focus on working with children who are leaving out-of-home care for adoption or other family permanency which requires preparation and support to help them understand the past events in their lives and to process feelings connected to their experiences of abuse and neglect, separation, loss, rejection, and abandonment. The clinician works with the child to help them understand the termination of his/her parents parental rights; help the child understand and embrace the adoption process; involve the child in planning for the adoption; help the child with the transition from foster care to adoption; and reduce the possibility of disruption. Resource Parent Support groups provide support and training to resource parents in many areas to include but are not limited to increasing the resource parents knowledge of how fostering a child or multiple children can impact their marriage and their family dynamic. The groups may cover topics such as effective communication, embracing challenges, positive discipline, conflict resolution, compassion, and collaboration.
