Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Enterprise DevelopmentMACED's Enterprise Development program helps entrepreneurs and small business owners develop the tools and skills they need to create quality jobs through strong businesses that provide important community services. We provide access to investment capital combined with training and technical assistance to increase their capacity and likelihood of success. At fiscal year end, the combined portfolio of MACED and its affiliated nonprofit Appalachian Investment Corporation included 161 loans totaling $12,092,552. In fiscal year 2017 we deployed 60 loans, totaling $3,614,422, and resulting in the creation or retention of 111.5 jobs. Our staff and contractors provided nearly 3,700 total hours of technical assistance.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

How$martKYHow$martKY is a residential energy efficiency program that we run in partnership with distribution cooperatives from the East Kentucky Power Cooperative system. How$martKY improves accessibility for low- to moderate-income residents by providing energy efficient retrofits through an on-bill financing model, essentially allowing customers to pay for the retrofits through the savings on their utility bills. In fiscal year 2017, we completed 22 retrofits, representing an estimated annual reduction of 412 MMBtu in energy usage and $13,594 in savings on utility bills.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Kentucky Center for Economic Policy The Kentucky Center for Economic Policy (KCEP) provides solid information and grounded analysis about state fiscal and economic policy issues and their impact on low- and moderate-income Kentuckians. In fiscal year 2017, we produced 13 briefs and reports and 111 blog posts on Kentucky's tax system and state budget, Medicaid and health care, need-based college aid, the minimum wage, adult education, K-12 school funding, and other issues. We also launched a new multi-year campaign around Kentucky state tax reform. We operated a blog at our website, kypolicy.org, which produced a stream of analysis and commentary on pressing issues facing the state. Our work was cited in 241 separate media stories, including appearances on a state-wide public affairs show and opinion pieces in Kentucky newspapers.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The first level of review of the Form 990 is by MACED's vice president for finance and operations, who provides the preparer with the information for the return and works closely with the preparer to ensure its accuracy and completeness. The MACED president reviews the form before signing it. The board's finance committee also reviews the Form 990. Following the finance committee review, the Form 990 is distributed to the board electronically before it is submitted to the IRS.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The MACED bylaws include a conflict of interest policy that specifies conflicts of interest to be avoided. The board of directors may make exceptions to the policy in specific cases when the situation is fully disclosed to them. A provision of the conflict of interest policy is that each director, officer and employee must receive, sign and return a copy of a summary of the conflict of interest policy. Annually, MACED board members and employees sign the summary anew, affirming that they have read and understand the policy. As part of the annual audit process, board members and other related parties fill out a related party questionnaire on which they report any interests and transactions that could give rise to conflicts of interest. Any conflicts of interest are disclosed as part of the audited financial statements.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Annually, the MACED president is evaluated through a process guided by the board executive committee, composed of the board officers (chair, vice-chair, board treasurer and board secretary) The executive committee reports its findings to the board in closed session After considering the committee's report, the board sets the president's compensation for the following year The board takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for the CEOs of three to five comparable organizations as well as its knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement The president does not participate in or vote on the decision on the president's compensation The board's decision on compensation is recorded in minutes which are presented and approved at the following board meeting This process last took place in December 2016 The president determines the compensation of other staff, including those who serve as corporate officers, following an annual performance review of each staff member Along with considerations of equity among staff, the president takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for officer positions in three to five comparable organizations and his knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement Every change in a staff salary is documented in a letter to the staff member
