Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Direct Services to Individuals The majority of our work is focused on directly serving individuals and families. Programs include parenting education and coaching, individual, family and group counseling for children impacted by abuse and for adults who experience abuse as children and therapeutic visitation for families involved in the child welfare system. All services are provided in a trauma responsive framework and staff are highly trained in evidence based practices. Nearly 4,000 children and adults participated in these direct services, and over 35,000 hours of direct service were delivered. Highlights that demonstrate impact include 89% of parents in Nurturing Parenting demonstrated a reduction in risk for child abuse, neglect or exploitation, 100% of children participating in family based parenting enrichment services decreased trauma symptoms, 100% of adults completing individual therapy reported a decrease in trauma symptoms, and 84% of children completing therapy reported decreased trauma symptoms, and, 93% of clients in our visitation program felt that staff believed in them and their success.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Training Services Family Nurturing Center has a commitment to increasing community capacity and places a high value on training other professionals, both locally and nationally, to deliver evidence based models Trainings included implementation of the Nurturing Parenting Program, Engaging Fathers, Trauma Informed Care and Child Adult Relationship Enhancement 126 outside professionals participated in more than 2,000 hours of training and professional development

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Community Education Educating children and adults about child abuse is a key component of ending the cycle of child abuse. Nearly 20,000 individuals participated in education services in the fiscal year. Outcomes include 94% of tested children who received education through the Kids on the Block program increased their knowledge of ways to recognize and report child abuse, and 87% of adults completing the Stewards of Children program committed to implementing at least one action step to protect children.
