Part X, Line 2	The Organization is not subject to federal, state or local income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and therefore, no provision for income taxes is included in the financial statements. In addition, the Organization qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(6)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2). The Organization files federal information returns (IRS Form 990) as an organization exempt from income taxes. The Organization has not filed federal tax returns (IRS Form 990T) as an organization with unrelated trade or business taxable income. Management has determined that the Organization's revenues and expenses are related to its tax exempt purpose. The Organization has not recognized any income taxes in either 2016 or 2015 in the financial statements based upon the Organization's filing status as an Organization exempt from income tax. If the Organization paid any income taxes they would be recorded as an expense of the Organization. The Organization has not recognized any penalties and interest related to income taxes in either the 2016 or 2015 financial statements. The Organization's tax position that it is an organization exempt from income tax will not result in a significant increase or decrease in the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits within 12 months of the reporting date of December 31, 2016. The Organization's previously filed information returns for the tax years 2013, 2014 and 2015 remain subject to examination by a taxing authority. The Organization's information return for the tax year 2016 has not yet been filed and remains subject to examination by a taxing authority.
