Through personal care, housekeeping and health reviews, we helped 52 seniors remain in their own homes. We extended our partnerships and collaborations with other home care agencies throughout southwestern Ohio, even in a time of changing patterns in health care reimbursement by state and other government agencies. HCAT and STNA - The Home Care Aide Training program enrolled 25 individuals and graduated 20 trained aides over the year and assisted them in attaining and retaining their employment with many agencies and institutions in our area. We further supported their job success by providing a workforce job coach, who serves as a resource for our graduates as they enter the workforce, some of them employed for the very first time. The State Tested Nurse Aide program enrolled 31 individuals and graduated 23 trained aides. We also assisted them in retaining their employment and further supported their job success by providing a workforce job coach, who serves as a resource for our graduates as they enter the workforce. In 2020, enrollment numbers dropped due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Classes were suspended for two months and then class size was reduced to 50% in order to follow CDC guidelines related to social distancing.
