Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Dress for Success provides high quality, interview appropriate clothing and image counseling services for women seeking to enter or re-enter the workforce. These women come from an expansive and diverse group of non-profit and government agencies, including homeless shelters, immigration services, job training programs, education institutions, and domestic violence shelters. Employment retention programs are the cornerstone of Dress for Success Cincinnati. The Career Center offers access to a professional human resources staff and volunteers, the Internet, computers, and printers to assist in resume preparation, job searches, effective self-promotion, and interview techniques. The Going Places Network (GPN) helps unemployed and underemployed clients gain career skills, utilize job search resources, and build confidence. This structured program was developed because the challenging economic climate was leading to more competitive job searches and many women still need considerable coaching and support on resume writing, interviewing techniques, and Internet navigation before being truly ready to seek employment. GPN consists of individual coaching and weekly small group workshops. The Dress for Success Cincinnati Professional Women's Group (PWG) is a unique job retention component offered exclusively by Dress for Success affiliates. Clients who obtain employment are invited to become members for life in the PWG, and through meetings twice a month and special events, have access to a network of peer support, practical information, and inspiration to achieve self-defined success in career and life. Through a specialized curriculum developed by Dress for Success Worldwide, members receive coaching on topics such as financial education, corporate culture, health and wellness, and creating work/life balance. The Dress for Success Cincinnati Mobile Career Transformation Center (MCTC) was launched in September 2011, providing services in the community where clients can readily access them. The MCTC is housed in a custom-designed, commercial vehicle that accommodates wheeled racks of attire inventory, program materials, laptop computers, staff members, and volunteers. This has allowed Dress for Success Cincinnati to serve women who have difficulty reaching the downtown location. Approximately 1,200 women were served in 2016. 890 interview suits and 260 employment suits were distributed. There were 28 active Professional Women's Group members and 582 Career Center clients during the year. There were also 50 Going Places Network program participants, and 36 of these members completed the program successfully.
