Name: Dress for Success Cincinnati

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Dress for Success provides high quality interview-appropriate apparel for women who are entering or re-entering the workforce. These women are referred by a diverse group of non-profit and government agencies, including homeless shelters, immigration services, job training programs, education institutions and domestic violence shelters. Beyond the Suit, workforce development and employment retention programs are the cornerstone of Dress for Success Cincinnati. In 2019 Dress for Success Cincinnati launched a partnership with Cincinnati Works, Inc., dba Cincinnati Works, to enhance our Beyond the Suit Workforce Development programming through a shared employee and curriculum support. The Career Center offers access to a professional human resources staff and volunteers, the internet, computers and printers to assist in resume preparation, job searches, effective self-promotion and interview techniques. The HigherHER program (formerly known as The Going Places Network) helps unemployed and underemployed clients gain career skills, utilize job search resources and build confidence because many women still need considerable coaching and support on resume writing, interviewing techniques and internet navigation before being truly ready to seek employment. HigherHER consists of individual coaching and weekly small group workshops. The Dress for Success Cincinnati Professional Women's Group (PWG) is a unique job retention component offered exclusively by Dress for Success affiliates. Clients who obtain employment are invited to become members for life in the PWG, and through monthly meetings and special events, have access to a network of peer support, practical information and inspiration to achieve self-defined success in career and life. Through a specialized curriculum developed by Dress for Success Worldwide, members receive coaching on topics such as financial education, corporate culture, health and wellness, creating work/life balance and leadership. The Dress for Success Cincinnati Mobile Career Transformation Center (MCTC) provides services in the community where clients can readily access them. The MCTC is housed in a custom-designed, commercial vehicle that accommodates racks of apparel and program materials. This has allowed Dress for Success Cincinnati to serve women who have difficulty reaching the downtown location. Dress for Success Cincinnati served 745 women in 2019.
