Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Gross Up Payments	With respect to the boxes checked on Part I, Question 1a, Ascension Health has various policies in place with respect to travel, commuting and other benefits provided to its executives. Certain benefits listed and checked under this question are considered taxable compensation. In these circumstances, the value of the benefit is included in that given executive's compensation. Certain other benefits listed and checked on this question are considered strictly business expenses and therefore no amount of the benefit is taxable and no amount is included in the executive's compensation.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3 Arrangement used to establish the top management official's compensation	Ascension Health Alliance, a related organization of Ascension Health, uses the following to establish the compensation of the organization's CEO - Compensation Committee - Independent Compensation Consultant - Compensation Survey or Study - Approval by the Board or Compensation Committee

The payment of benefits under the program, if any, is entirely dependent upon the facts and circumstances under which the executive terminates employment with the organization. Benefits under the program are unfunded and non-vested. Due to the substantial risk of forfeiture provision, there is no guarantee that these executives will ever receive any benefit under the program. Any amount ultimately paid under the program to the executive is reported as compensation on Form 990, Schedule J, Part II, Column B in the year paid. THE ORGANIZATION DID NOT PAY OUT AMOUNTS ATTRIBUTABLE TO SUPPLEMENTAL NONQUALIFIED RETIREMENT PLANS FOR THE FY 2018

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	The organization regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with the conflict of interest policy in that any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of the committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. The remaining individuals on the governing board or committee will decide if conflicts of interest exist. Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers annually signs a statement which affirms such person has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy, has read and understands the policy, has agreed to comply with the policy, and understands that the organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish its tax-exempt purpose. In addition, the General Counsel reviews all Conflict of Interest disclosures and makes an annual report to the Board on such disclosures.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Process to establish compensation of other employees	In determining compensation of other officers of the organization, the process included a review and approval by independent persons, comparability data, and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision. The Compensation Committee of the Board engaged an independent compensation consultant to advise the Committee with respect to the executive team members. Then the Compensation Committee reviewed and approved the compensation. In the review of the compensation, the other officers of the organization were compared to individuals in other comparable organizations that hold the same title. During the review and approval of the compensation, documentation of the decision was recorded in the minutes. Ascension Health performed all of the above procedures to obtain the rebuttable presumption respecting compensation arrangements (per IRC Section 4958).
