Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The JetPack Program is a backpack food program providing nutritious, non-perishable food to children in need of food assistance over the weekends and during school breaks. The Well services 14 local elementary, middle and high schools located in Williamson and Maury Counties. The Well is able to provide this program through donations from local churches and individual support. The total amount of JetPack income received through church and individual donations was $ 40,456. The Well also receives a food grant from Second Harvest of Middle Tennessee that helps off-set the cost of some of the food purchased for JetPacks. JetPacks are packed and distributed by a team of volunteers at each school.
