National Center for Complex Health and Social Needs-The National Center for Complex Health and Social Needs aims to improve the outcomes for people with complex medical, behavioral, and social needs. It works to coalesce a new field of care by bringing together a broad range of clinicians, researchers, policymakers, and consumers who are developing, testing, and scaling new models of team-based, integrated care. Population Health Initiatives- The Camden Coalitions two-pronged approach, consisting of patient and system engagement, is necessary to improve the quality of care for individuals experiencing complex health and social needs. Population Health Initiatives administers high touch care management interventions and manages the operations of the Camden Coalition's Medicaid Accountable Care Organization (ACO). The ACO aims to deliver more coordinated, efficient, and effective care to 60,000 residents of Camden, which includes many of the city's most vulnerable citizens. The Camden ACO, along with ACOs in Trenton and Newark, are evolving into what are being by bringing together area hospitals, behavioral health providers, community residents, and organizations, we aim to highlight and close gaps in the healthcare system where vulnerable citizens could adequately get their needs met.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Integrated Data and Information Systems- The Coalition works to break down informational silos within the healthcare system and across sectors by sharing, analyzing, and evaluating quantitative and qualitative data. Our integrated data framework highlights ways to improve upon our interventions and the complex systems (e.g., medical, behavioral, and social services) with which our patients interact. The Coalition runs a healthcare information exchange and an integrated database that brings together data from health care, criminal justice, school district, etc. sources.
