Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Mental Health Services - Provides a team of clinicians and mental health workers who offer short-term, in-home therapy and case management services. The team is available 24/7 to support children and families in crisis. The focus is to keep the family unit together in the best interest of the child by providing immediate crisis response, offering short-term in-home therapy, providing case management and rehabilitation services, maintaining family stabilization, and preventing hospitalization and/or out of home placement.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

In-Home Visitation Programs - Serves high-risk families, with children birth to 5 years of age that could benefit from a program that includes parent education and linkages to community resources. Program caseworkers provide services to client families every two weeks. Caseworkers provide developmental screenings and educate parents about home and car safety, breastfeeding, nutrition, immunizations, healthy development, effective play activities, postpartum depression, oral health, and early literacy. Promotes improved quality and positive relationships between parents and children, positive behavior with hands-on practice sessions, and effective age-appropriate communication strategies via modeling positive, consistent and decisive ways to manage program behavior.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Outreach and Education Services - Promote mental health and wellness for children and teens in unserved and underserved communities by raising awareness and increasing knowledge of protective and risk factors that affect children's mental health. Assess children's and family's mental health & other service needs, providing brief intervention and supportive services, and linking clients to community based resources to build protective factors and ameliorate risk factors. Provide a source of support for healthy child development that encourages social and emotional well-being during the earliest years of life. Offers a source of education, coaching and support for parents and connects families to services that support healthy child development.
