Community Development - Serving Rural Ohio Communities for over 30 Years, The Ohio Rural Community Assistance Program (RCAP) provides free and low-cost services to help rural communities address their drinking water and wastewater treatment needs. Each year, we serve over 100 communities in Ohio and leverage millions of dollars for water and sewer projects. Our field agents assist communities with project development and capacity building. Ohio RCAP is part of the Great Lakes RCAP network, and receives funding from a number of federal programs as well as Ohio EPA and the Ohio Water Development Authority to provide technical assistance to communities under 10,000 population, including homeowner associations and mobile home parks. In addition, Community Development provides community planning and economic development and other services to small communities and small businesses, and grant writing and administrative services to local governments. Community Development is also responsible for international programming related to civic engagement and development (leadership, small business, and community development) in several countries.
