Name: Wheeler Mission Ministries Inc

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Ministry and shelter to the homeless. The Mission provides temporary emergency shelter to homeless and/or disadvantaged men. Breakfast, lunch, dinner, showers, clothing, chapel services, case management (with referrals to onsite and offsite social service agencies) are provided. Medical, dental, and podiatric services are also available at on-site clinics. As well, Wheeler provides programs for guests who are employed or actively seeking employment but have no permanent residence, and guests with physical and mental challenges. Wheeler created its Winter Contingency plan, which increases emergency shelter services during inclement weather that leads to increased demand for services. In September 2015, Wheeler merged with Backstreet Missions, Inc. this has resulted in additional men's shelter.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Substance Abuse treatment program The Hebron Center program, with facilities in Indianapolis and Bloomington, addresses the underlying addictions which often press men into homelessness. Those who desire to enter a recovery program begin by working through a pre-entry trial period to determine if they are ready to commit to our long-term residential program. Men follow a strict regimen and demonstrate adherence to our guidelines, completing several benchmarks before moving on to the Orientation Phase. Once this phase is complete, men move to the Hebron Center outside Bloomington for the heart of the program, which is approximately six months in duration. This 288 acre facility provides class time, homework, peer groups, individual counseling & case management, life skills training & work therapy onsite manufacturing wood pallets, or doing grounds keeping, vehicle maintenance, cleaning or kitchen duty. The final phase takes place back in Indianapolis where men work on getting back into the working world. The program is highly structured, holding men to a high level of accountability, yet maintains a caring, compassionate therapeutic environment.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Women's shelter program The center for women and children (CWC) provides an environment that is safe physically, emotionally, and spiritually for homeless women and mothers with children. Hundreds of women and mothers with children enter our doors seeking food, clothing, and safe emergency shelter. These women find their vital needs supplied, but also experience love and compassion, bringing rest to their weary souls. National studies indicate that the fastest growing segment of the homeless population consist of women and mothers with children, making these services offered at the CWC imperative to our community. The average stay at the Center is 28 days. During that stay, ladies are provided with counseling, job readiness training, assistance in job procurement, education assessment and tutoring, medical services, addiction counseling, and encouragement to enter one of our long term residential programs. In September 2015, Wheeler merged with Backstreet Missions, Inc. this has resulted in additional women's shelter.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	WMM and ESH are exempt from Federal and state income taxes on related income under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and related state laws. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Ministry and recognize a tax liability if the Ministry has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by various federal and state taxing authorities. Management believes that as of May 31, 2017 and 2016, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The Ministry is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. As such, the Ministry is generally exempt from income taxes. However, WMM and ESH are required to file Federal Form 990 - Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax and a corresponding state return, which are informational returns only. WMM and ESH have filed their federal and state income tax returns for periods through May 31, 2016. These income tax returns are generally open to examination by the relevant taxing authorities for a period of three years from the later of the date the return was filed or its due date (including approved extensions).
