(throughout the Diocese) The Board of Immigration Appeals (U S Department of Homeland Security) recognizes Catholic Charities' Immigration Services as a program that provides accurate and affordable services to immigrants who seek to adjust their status, reunite with family members, obtain employment authorization, or file other paperwork through the U S Citizenship and Immigration Services Assistance with naturalization is also available U S Citizenship classes are offered in the Fort Wayne office The immigration supervisor has been approved for accreditation since April 7, 2005 as a representative for partial accreditation by the Board of Immigration Appeals The immigration program also provided training and outreach to other community organizations who work with immigrants and refugees With the Train the Trainers Workshop, we provide an overview of the necessary steps for an immigration process and steps towards U S Citizenship We also review the actual process for conducting and facilitating U S Citizenship classes This is a way to share our passion and vision with other agencies that want to help immigrants and refugees establish U S Citizenship The primary focus of "train the trainers" is to give pertinent information to other organizations in order for them to educate legal permanent residents about the initial qualifications for seeking U S citizenship and to receive resources to successfully conduct citizenship classes The organizations that receive training are usually non-profit social service organizations There were 337 immigration consultations completed from 07/01/2015 to 06/30/2016 in which we provided initial guidance to those seeking immigration assistance 590 immigration applications were filed with the United States
