Weatherization and energy -The weatherization program provides free, energy-efficient improvements for the homes of low-income families. Improvements may include insulating attics, walls and mobile home bellies, as well as, repairing poorly installed heating system equipment or leaking ducts, and some furnaces. The energy assistance programs include both heating and summer cooling assistance. The Energy Assistance program pays a portion of a client's winter heating bills. Summer cooling also provides air conditioners or utility bill credits in summer months, depending on a family's situation. Summer cooling provides a one-time $75 electric benefit after July 1, 2016. This benefit will be automatically applied to a household's electronic account if they were approved during the heating season. In fiscal year 2016 8,075 families were served by these programs.
