Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Organization has adopted FASB standard for Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes Upon adoption of this standard, the Organization will recognize a tax benefit only if it is more likely than not the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur The amount recognized will be the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination For tax positions not meeting the more-likely-than-not test, no tax benefit will be recorded Currently, the Organization accounts for contingencies associated with certain tax positions in accordance with the FASB standard Accounting for Contingencies, which provides the recording of a contingency based on the probability of certain events to transpire that range from probable to remote as opposed to applying a more likely than not recognition threshold The Organization has examined this issue and has determined there are no material contingent tax liabilities
