| Form and Line Reference | Explanation |
|--|--|
| Part I, Ln 7 Col(f) | During 2013, the Center adopted Accounting Standards Update 2011-07, Healthcare Entities (Topic 954), "Presentation and Disclosure of Patient Service Revenue, Provision for Bad Debts, and the Allowance for Doubtful Accounts for Certain Healthcare Entities," which requires certain healthcare entities to present the provision for bad debts relating to patient service revenue as a deduction from patient service revenue in the statements of activities and changes in net assets rather than as an operating expense. The Center's adoption of this standard had no net impact on its financial position, results of operations, or cash flows. This standard also requires healthcare entities to provide enhanced disclosure about their policies for recognizing revenue and assessing bad debts, as well as qualitative and quantitative information about changes in the allowance for uncollectible accounts. |
| Part II, Community Building Activities | The organization did not have any community building activities to report. |

|-------------------------|---|
| Part III, Line 9b | An active client from whom no payment has been received for 90 days shall be sent a letter of non-payment, with a copy sent to the client's primary case manager. The primary case manager shall address the non-payment with the client to determine a course of action based on the client's clinical and financial circumstances. A delinquent account will be sent to collection only in instances when it is clear that the client has the means to make payments and refuses to do so. Referral to a collection agency would also occur only following discussion with the client's primary case manager, the program director/coordinator or division director, and, if appropriate, the client's psychiatrist. If the refusal to pay is clearly due to psychiatric decompensating, the focus will be on alleviating the symptoms of the client's mental illness first and secondarily looking at the issue of collection on the delinquent account. This practice applies to all outstanding patient account balances, not only clients receiving financial assistance. |
| Part VI, Line 2 | As a behavioral health care organization, CMHC collaborates with many of its stakeholders to assess the behavioral health needs of the Community. For example, with children, the organization IS part of a System of Care that meets regularly with child welfare, primary care, Education, probation, early childhood providers, families and others to assess the gaps in services and needs of the community. CMHC also Regularly meets with Dearborn County Hospital, Judges, CIVIC leaders, law enforcement, and primary care physicians to evaluate the needs of The community. The organization IS also an active member of the board of the AHEC (Area Health Education Coalition). As an organization, CMHC regularly surveys patients and their families to assess both their satisfaction with services as well as needs. Additionally, CMHC has an advisory committee made up of consumers, staff, and community partners that discuss program needs and service gaps. For example, as A result of feedback from these groups as well as research reviews, the organization had implemented an integrated primary health care/behavioral health care clinic specifically to meet primary health care needs of adults with serious mental illness. |
