Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	An annual conflict of interest form is filled out by each board member, which is verified by our independent auditors. All other employees sign the code of conduct policy at time of hire which covers conflicts of interest. The CEO and the Board Liaison review the conflict of interest forms to determine if any potential conflicts of interest exist. If a potential conflict of interest is determined to exist, the CEO and Executive Committee of the board, consisting of the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer, meet to discuss whether any actual conflicts of interest exist. Although no conflicts have been noted in the past, if a conflict of interest was to arise, restrictions would be imposed and the board member would be required to excuse themselves from any discussions and/or votes related to the conflicting issue.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Process to establish compensation of top management official	Compensation for the organization's CEO is determined by the board of directors based on a performance evaluation. Each board member completes an evaluation, and then the Executive Committee reports the findings and any changes in compensation to the CEO. Any changes in compensation are based on the National Association of Community Health Centers (NACHC) salary surveys. This process is performed annually, and was last done November of 2016. The evaluation and review process is documented in the board meeting minutes.
