Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must immediately disclose the existence of the disclosable interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Board of Director delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. If the Board of Directors has reasonable cause to believe a person has failed to disclose a disclosable interest, it shall inform such person of the basis for such belief and afford him or her an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the person's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board of Directors determines the person has failed to disclose a disclosable interest, a majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors shall determine the appropriate corrective action to be taken.

The purpose is to ensure the corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status.
