Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 requires that the organization provide the text of the footnote to the organization's financial statements that reports the organization's liability for uncertain tax positions under ASC 740. ASC 740 addresses the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements and prescribes a threshold of more-likely-than-not for recognition and derecognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The adoption of ASC 740 by Bon Secours Mercy Health, Inc. on September 1, 2007 did not have a material impact on BSMH's consolidated financial statements. As the organization does not conduct a separate audit of its financial statements, below is the related statement from the Bon Secours Mercy Health, Inc. consolidated audited financial statements: The Company and most of its subsidiaries (including certain joint venture entities) are exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. Their related income is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(A). The Company accounts for uncertainty in income tax positions by applying a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Company has determined that no significant unrecognized tax benefits or liabilities exist as of December 31, 2018. Accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, ASC Topic 740-10 prescribes a comprehensive model for how an organization should measure, recognize, present and disclose in its financial statements uncertain tax positions that an organization has taken or expects to take on a tax return. The Company is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, with currently the IRS audit of Mercy for 2016 tax period in progress. The Company believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2013. As of December 31, 2018, the Company has no uncertain tax positions. The Company's taxable subsidiaries had $169,666 of gross net operating loss carryforwards as of December 31, 2018, which expire in varying periods through 2037 and are available to offset future taxable income. The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to be in effect during the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	includes the enactment date. Interest and penalties related to income taxes are accounted for as income tax expense. The Company's deferred tax assets are fully reserved at December 31, 2018 as the Company considers it more likely than not that these amounts will not be recognized. On December 22, 2017, the President signed into law H.R. 1, originally known as the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. The Act significantly revises the U.S. corporate income tax by, lowering the statutory corporate tax rate from 35% to 21% and eliminating certain deductions. The new law also includes several provisions that result in substantial changes to the tax treatment of tax-exempt organizations and their donors. The Company has reviewed these provisions and the potential impact and concluded the enactment of H.R. 1 will not have a material effect on the operations of the organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Process to establish compensation of other employees	The compensation committee of the board of Bon Secours Mercy Health, Inc (BSMH) engages in a comprehensive process for the oversight and management of remuneration for executive employees and disqualified parties of the BSMH. The compensation committee consists of a group of independent board members and engages an independent external compensation consultant to ensure they receive appropriate analysis of market and follow the practices necessary to obtain full compliance with the IRS' rebuttable presumption of reasonableness. The committee establishes and maintains a compensation philosophy, reviews pay practices against local, regional and national healthcare organizations and approves all remunerative decisions for this group of individuals. The committee reviews and receives assurances that all levels of pay within the organization are reasonable based on performance and validates incentives are met. These decisions are documented in the BSMH board of directors' and compensation committee minutes. Compensation Process Other Officers/ Key Employees. For those key employees and highest paid employees that are not reviewed by the BSMH compensation committee, the process included a review and approval by independent persons, comparability data, and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision. In the review, the other officers or key employees of the organization were compared to other hospitals' employees in the area that hold the same title. During the review and approval of the compensation, documentation of the decision was recorded in human resources.
