Name: Jewish Child and Family Services

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Emotional Well-Being - JCFS masters and doctorate level clinicians offer short- and long-term therapy, along with case management services for children, teens, adults, couples and families in an emotionally safe setting where they can find solutions to the challenges they face. Clinically expert and relentlessly caring counseling staff promote personal growth for their clients in response to a variety of issues, including: anxiety, depression, illness and loss, mental health, family conflict, life transitions and more. In addition, we provide integrative counseling services and psychological testing to understand learning differences, cognitive, emotional and other mental health disorders. The Response for Teens empowers youth to make healthy life choices through an array of services including prevention, outreach, counseling, leadership and sexual health education. Through community-centered services JCFS offers a wide range of education, support and advocacy programs that address issues impacting Jewish homes, families and the community across the lifespan. Including such services as: professional training and consultation, community awareness, support groups, pastoral counseling, cultural sensitivity trainings and education support for institutions. For children who need special help learning, the Therapeutic Preschool at the Virginia Frank Child Development Center (VFCDC) offers a small, structured, language-enriched program. VFCDC provides children the opportunity to succeed in a warm and caring environment that helps them develop socially, emotionally and cognitively toward their potential. VFCDC is a nationally recognized pioneer in the field of family-centered child development and offers a continuum of preventative and therapeutic services for children from birth to six years, including counseling for children, their parents and families. HIAS Chicago provides an array of comprehensive, cost-effective immigration and citizenship services to hundreds of individuals. Services include: green card assistance, citizenship preparation classes, family-based immigration services, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, restitution assistance for Holocaust survivors, along with academic scholarships for undergraduate and graduate students.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Career and Employment Services - Career and Employment services positively impact the lives of more than 5,000 people annually by working with individuals facing unemployment, underemployment, a career change or those in need of education and training, counseling, coaching, job placement and retention assistance. We connect employers to qualified job seeker through our customized matching of candidates to open positions, outplacement services and networking opportunities. JCFS is the only Chicago non-profit career and employment provider that offers outplacement services by offering an affordable, quality plan to help transitioning employees through formal career assessment, job search tools and employment strategies. We offer events and seminars through our Employer Partner Program on such topics as: addressing initial concerns of hiring people with disabilities, identifying productivity enhancements/reasonable accommodations, increasing diversity in your workforce, starting a mentorship program. Our career counselors empower and support job seekers of all ages who have been impacted by unemployment or underemployment through career assessment, planning and education. Two short-term, industry-specific training programs helps individuals to gain knowledge, confidence, and the tools to secure stable employment. Pharmacy technician training prepares individuals to work in a number of health care environments, while janitorial training includes paid on-the-job work experience that can be applied to various work environments. Individualized employment entails personalized services to individuals with disabilities and those who are low income, by developing an employment plan that includes job search strategies, resume building, and mock interviews. In addition, job coaching provides on-site job support to people with disabilities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Special Education - The JCFS Knapp School (formerly named JCFS Therapeutic Day School) uses a strengths-based approach to the education of K-12+ students with diverse academic, social and emotional needs. Guided by empathic and trauma-informed practices we focus on the whole child, allowing each student to partner with their school team in a shared process that allows for opportunities to discover and develop their potential in the journey to become their best self.

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

(Code:) (Expenses $ 4,724,622 including grants of $ 23,781) (Revenue $ 2,111,648)

Disability Services - Staffed by expert pediatric therapists and clinicians, our integrated pediatric therapy services bring a family-focused approach to the treatment of developmental delays, disruptive behaviors and social, emotional and cognitive issues using a variety of methods, such as: speech, language, feeding/ swallowing and occupational therapy, along with aqua and yoga therapy. Developmental social groups offer guided interaction with peers that helps children develop social skills. Camp Firefly offers a unique summer camp experience to boys and girls, ages 9-18, who have been diagnosed with social disorders, such as Social Anxiety, OCD, PDD, Asperger's Syndrome, Non-Verbal Learning Disorder, and High Functioning Autism. Our low staff-to-camper ratios create positive summer experiences for campers, positioning them for success within a broader typical camp environment. Services for people with disabilities and their families include social opportunities and residential options like community-based group living that is inclusive and accessible for all. Additional services offered: home-based waiver for children and adults with intellectual/ developmental disabilities, respite support and relief, Sibshops, support, assistance and training for independent living, and educational and support groups covering a variety of topics of interest to people with disabilities, family members and professionals. Employment assistance is available to individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families through its customized employment program. Customizing employment is more inclusive and provides adults with disabilities options beyond day programs and sheltered workshops by matching the strengths, conditions and interests of a job candidate and the identified business needs of an employer. Staff are trained in a special blend of flexible strategies, services and supports that are designed to increase employment options for job seekers with severe challenges who need a more individualized approach. Legal advocacy at JCFS provides consultation, information, referrals and legal representation in special education law, mental health and developmental disabilities law, and adult guardianship law, as well as training, consultations, information and referrals to the social services staff of Jewish Federation agencies and to other agencies as well.

(Code:) (Expenses $ 4,953,897 including grants of $ 1,053,702) (Revenue $ 4,942,297)

Child Welfare - JCFS provides placement and casework services for children who have been removed from their families because of abuse and/or neglect. Most of the children JCFS serves require specialized care due to emotional, behavioral, mental health or developmental issues. Services include licensing for foster families along with intensive training to prepare foster parents for meeting the children's needs. JCFS also works to provide emergency foster homes when needed. JCFS child welfare services provide intensive support to high-risk children in foster care to stabilize placements and prevent entry into higher levels of care. For families formed through adoption or subsidized guardianship whose children are experiencing emotional, education, medical or behavioral issues, our clinicians provide services in Spanish and English that include home-based individual and family therapy, grief counseling, crisis intervention and serve as a court, school or community advocates.

Section A. All Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Are all of the organization's supported organizations listed by name in the organization's governing documents? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organizations are designated. If designated by class or purpose, describe the designation. If historic and continuing relationship, explain.
2	Did the organization have any supported organization that does not have an IRS determination of status under section 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how the organization determined that the supported organization was described in section 509(a)(1) or (2).
3a	Did the organization have a supported organization described in section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6)? If "Yes," answer (b) and (c) below.
b	Did the organization confirm that each supported organization qualified under section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) and satisfied the public support tests under section 509(a)(2)? If "Yes," describe in Part VI when and how the organization made the determination.
c	Did the organization ensure that all support to such organizations was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization put in place to ensure such use.
4a	Was any supported organization not organized in the United States ("foreign supported organization")? If "Yes" and if you checked 12a or 12b in Part I, answer (b) and (c) below.
b	Did the organization have ultimate control and discretion in deciding whether to make grants to the foreign supported organization? If "Yes," describe in Part VI how the organization had such control and discretion despite being controlled or supervised by or in connection with its supported organizations.
c	Did the organization support any foreign supported organization that does not have an IRS determination under sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization used to ensure that all support to the foreign supported organization was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes.
5a	Did the organization add, substitute, or remove any supported organizations during the tax year? If "Yes," answer (b) and (c) below (if applicable). Also, provide detail in Part VI, including (i) the names and EIN numbers of the supported organizations added, substituted, or removed; (ii) the reasons for each such action; (iii) the authority under the organization's organizing document authorizing such action; and (iv) how the action was accomplished (such as by amendment to the organizing document).
b	Type I or Type II only. Was any added or substituted supported organization part of a class already designated in the organization's organizing document?
c	Substitutions only. Was the substitution the result of an event beyond the organization's control?
6	Did the organization provide support (whether in the form of grants or the provision of services or facilities) to anyone other than (i) its supported organizations, (ii) individuals that are part of the charitable class benefited by one or more of its supported organizations, or (iii) other supporting organizations that also support or benefit one or more of the filing organization's supported organizations? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI.
7	Did the organization provide a grant, loan, compensation, or other similar payment to a substantial contributor (defined in section 4958(c)(3)(C)), a family member of a substantial contributor, or a 35% controlled entity with regard to a substantial contributor? If "Yes," complete Part I of Schedule L (Form 990 or 990-EZ) .
8	Did the organization make a loan to a disqualified person (as defined in section 4958) not described in line 7? If "Yes," complete Part I of Schedule L (Form 990 or 990-EZ).

Part V, Line 4:	The endowment funds held by JCFS and by the JCFS Endowment Foundation were established to support the Agency's operations and its various programs.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	The accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, JCFS may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of JCFS and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBTI). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for the reporting periods presented in these financial statements. JCFS files the Form 990 annual information return in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois.
