Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	UCAN is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law, except for taxes pertaining to unrelated business income, if any UCAN follows the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, UCAN may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of UCAN and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. There were no uncertain tax positions identified or recorded as assets or liabilities during the reporting period covered by these financial statements. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Annually, each member of the Board of Directors signs a conflict of interest statement. These statements are reviewed by the President & CEO. Should a potential conflict be identified, the Board of Directors reviews the details and the involved party does not participate or vote on any matters related to the potential conflict other than to present factual information or respond to questions regarding the potential conflict.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Using several documented compensation studies, independent members of the board set the CEO's compensation annually. The deliberation and decision are contemporaneously documented. Compensation for other officers is determined using the same process that is used for all other employees. Each of the officers are given annual performance reviews by their direct supervisor and compensation adjustments are made based on annual ratings. Annual market surveys are used in determining equitable compensation.
