Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The organizations are required to assess whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination on the technical merits of the position, assuming the taxing authority has full knowledge of all information. If the tax position does not meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold, the benefit of that position is not recognized in the financial statements. The organizations have determined there are no amounts to record as assets or liabilities related to uncertain tax positions.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Form 990 is reviewed by the Executive Director. The Finance Committee approves the Form 990 and the board is provided a copy of the Form 990 prior to it being filed with the Internal Revenue Service.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	No member of the Board shall cast a vote on any matter which has a direct bearing on services to be provided by the member or any organization from which such member directly financially benefits or which they represent. No person may sit on the board who is an officer or employee of any organization contracting to perform work funded by the Corporation or funded through the organization. A member of the Board, who holds a direct or indirect financial interest in (or will receive a benefit from) the granting of funds to an entity or individual shall disclose such transaction to the Board. The member shall identify any conflict of interest, including conflicts of any consideration of the matter by the Board or any Board committee. The Board will determine if a conflict exists and determine appropriate action. If any question is raised as to whether a conflict of interest exists, the potentially interested Board member shall leave the meeting while the matter is discussed and voted upon. The remaining members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. Any vote approving the transaction that involves a possible conflict of interest, should include a determination by the disinterested directors that the transaction is in the best interest of the corporation and is fair in all respects to the corporation. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect that a disclosure was made and the nature of the disclosure, that the interested director abstained from voting and left the room for the final discussion and vote, and that the interested director abstained from the action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest existed, if any.
