Adult Education:

Through a grant from the Illinois Community College Board, CMAA and its partner agencies - the largest and most diverse consortium in the State of Illinois - offered English as a Second Language (ESL) and Civics classes to nearly 800 immigrants and refugees across the City of Chicago in FY20. Partners included such agencies as Ethiopian Community Association of Chicago, Hanul Family Alliance, Indo-American Center, and Muslim Women Resource Center, among others. In FY20 our consortium offered Adult Basic Education classes, in addition to ESL classes, in order to help clients with higher level English improve their reading and math skills. Additionally, through the support of the Illinois Community College Board, CMAA continued to offer ESL classes in Elgin, Illinois, a new service CMAA launched in FY18. . In Chicago, CMAA offered classes at local Chicago Public Schools for parents.. Our adult education classes helped prepare students to participate fully in their communities, and covered such topics as: the rights of immigrants and U.S. citizens, U.S. history and governance, accessing community resources, consumer economics, and workforce readiness skills. In FY20, with the support of the Illinois Community College Board, CMAA continued our Healthcare Employment Preparation Program in both Chicago and Elgin. CMAA offered contextualized Healthcare Literacy classes and holistic case management to participants. The class supports English Language Learners who are interested in pursuing a career in healthcare; the program focuses on increasing students' employability skills, English reading and writing skills, and prepares students for entering a career within the healthcare industry or pursuing further educational opportunities. Furthermore, with support from the Secretary of State, CMAA was able to serve limited English proficient adult students, unable to attend classes, by matching them with volunteer literacy tutors.

Our largest program is the Diverse Young Leaders after school program. Diverse Young Leaders provides academic enrichment, career exposure, and recreational activities for youth from K to 8th grade. Programming includes homework help and specialized tutoring, recreational activities, quarterly service learning projects, and other extracurricular activities. In fiscal year 2020 CMAA expanded its academic enrichment programming in the Diverse Young Leaders program, beginning with a specialized STEM curriculum for students from 3rd-5th grade to pique students' interest in science and STEM careers. Programming met for twice a week (one hour per session) and was designed by a doctoral candidate in elementary education from Loyola University Chicago; this work will continue in fiscal year 2021. While we were not able to complete quarterly grades from the full school year due to COVID-19, in fiscal year 2020 between quarter 1 and quarter 2 nearly 75% (74.19%) of students increased by one letter grade in one core school subject (reading, math, science, or social studies)

When school is not in session, our after school programming transitions into CMAA's popular Youth Summer Camp program, which meets weekdays for all of July and August from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. CMAA's summer programming focuses on academics, life skills, community service, and youth development through recreational activities and play. Activities include weekly academic lessons to aid in grade transition; daily recreational instruction to enhance team-building skills and mental and physical health; financial literacy; and monthly field trips. In addition, combined, CMAA's Diverse Young Leaders program and Youth Summer Camp served 112 students. Over 95% (96.4%) of youth were students of color and nearly 90% (88%) were from families living at or near the poverty line.

readiness, and teen mentorship. In fiscal year 2020, our agency officially expanded our summer teen internship program to a year-round program, serving 30 teens per year through paid employment and training opportunities. CMAA's teen interns work with our agency to develop community events, facilitate youth recreational and health activities, and provide tutoring and test prep to students in the Diverse Young Leaders and Youth Summer Camp program; they also learn important 21st century skills such as verbal communication, collaboration, and problem solving. CMAA's teen mentorship programs include our young women's mentoring group, Young Women Warriors (YWW), and our young men's mentoring program, Young Men Making Moves (YMMM). The YWW program has been a prominent community service for over 20 years and brings young women ages 12 to 18 together with older female mentors that are successful leaders and role models in their community. The YMMM was formed after seeing a gap in services for supporting first and second generation male youth. Both mentoring programs provide college and career readiness, foster leadership skills, and build social emotional competencies. This process occurs through a combination of workshops, which focus on key skill sets, and activities, or outings that provide a platform for our mentors and mentees to deepen their relationships. Past workshops include public speaking, college scholarships, interviewing, female health, financial literacy, and civic engagement. Activities include kayaking, rock climbing, and metal-working. All of the mentees CMAA serves in these programs are first generation Americans, and the vast majority (95%) will be the first in their family to go to college. In fiscal year 2020 (FY20), 100% of mentees reported that they feel their mentors care about how they're doing in school and in the future. In addition, over 80% indicated they feel comfortable talking to their mentors when something makes them feel "angry or afraid," indicating the strength of the relationships our mentees and mentees have built.

Finally, CMAA's youth department currently oversees Tiger Tutor, our agency's first social enterprise initiative. A test prep and tutoring program, Tiger Tutor focuses on individualized, high quality instruction to help students achieve their academic and collegiate goals, and currently provides small group tutoring, one-on-one instruction, and college advising. Tiger Tutor helps students while successfully helping CMAA diversify its revenue streams, ensuring our agency is able to continue to provide vital social services to our community. In FY20, Tiger Tutor developed a new logo, revamped our website, and focused on new services for the CPS Selective Enrollment Entrance Exam and the CPS Academic Center test.
