PCR is a grassroots community based organization located in public housing in the city of Chicago and our fundraising efforts have brought limited amount funds to the organization and we have been operating as a volunteer organization as results of this effort. However, funding is gradually improving. We at PCR also experienced a breach in our bank account. One of volunteer who had received a check from us for participating in a focus group made phony checks off our checking accounting back in October 28, 2018. We had to closed that account and we didn't think to asked for copies of all transactions to the account which was a huge challenges for the organization to reconcile our financial records.
