Application for grants should be addressed to:

Judson McNeil
The Toro Foundation
8111 Lyndale Avenue South
Bloomington, MN 55420-1196
952.887.8870

Applications for a grant must include the following information, using an official Grant Application Form that is available on www.toro.com/community:

1. A description of the purpose for which the grant is sought and specific details on how this purpose will be achieved by the grant;
2. Evidence that the persons proposing a project are able to carry it to completion;
3. A planned method for evaluation of the proposed program after its completion
4. A specific budget for the project as well as the operating budget for the organizations current fiscal year, showing anticipated sources of revenue as well as expenses;
5. A major donor list for the current and most recent fiscal years, including amount of support from each donor and sources of assured or anticipated support for the project proposed; and
6. Evidence that the organization requesting support has been granted tax exemption status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Toro Foundation requests that all initial inquiries from prospective applicants be made by email (community@toro.com), not by telephone or by personal visits.

The Toro Foundation board meets regularly. Requesting organizations will be advised by letter of the disposition of their requests.

The Toro Foundation has adopted the following guidelines:

1. The Foundation will invest only in organizations which have been ruled to be exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and which are not classified as private foundations.
2. Grants will be made in the four general areas of human services and health, education, cultural and civic affairs, and environmental education. Priority attention will be given to those communities in which The Toro Company has a

- major facility and where a substantial number of employees of The Toro Company reside.
3. Locally sponsored, national horticulturally oriented programs will be considered on the basis of merit and available resources.
 4. The Toro Foundation uses its employee matching gift program as the principal means for addressing the financial needs of private and post-high school education.
 5. Federated or umbrella organizations, such as the United Way and its counterpart in the arts and education categories, will receive favorable consideration as opposed to individual programs/groups within the respective categories.

The Foundation operates on a calendar year. Organizations should not submit a grant application more than once in any 12-month period. Repeat requests will not be considered in the same year. An initial grant does not necessarily indicate or ensure continued support.
