Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

At the board meeting closest to the date after the date of receipt of the completed form 990, the directors review the tax form and make any inquires to the officers of the agency. This review is done in conjunction with the review of the financial statements. Inquires that cannot be addressed by the officers are referred to the tax preparer for additional disclosure. Upon satisfaction of inquires made, the board votes to accept both the financial statements and tax report as presented or corrected.
