V In partnership with United Way of Southeast Michigan, JVS' Bridging the Gap program helps people who are homeless, with or without disabilities. JVS provides vocational counseling, job readiness training, internships, and referrals to appropriate resources such as substance abuse counseling to help these individuals achieve self-sufficiency. VI JVS works closely with Michigan Rehabilitation Services and other agencies to provide a full spectrum of programs to help individuals with cognitive, physical and/or emotional disabilities maximize their personal independence and integration into the community. JVS' array of Rehabilitation Services helps individuals with disabilities to identify and overcome barriers to employment, develop their vocational strengths and set realistic goals. Participants in these programs benefit from job coaching, training and job retention services. Through its Environmental Services Program (ESP), which offers janitorial skills training, classroom and hands-on work experiences, job seeking skills training and job placement, individuals increase opportunities to obtain and retain competitive employment. Individuals with developmental and/or emotional disabilities and possibly secondary disabilities are served by JVS' Supported Employment Program. JVS staff provide on-the-job training and supervision. VII Tri-County Dental Health provides referrals to volunteer dentists who will treat area residents (whether with disabilities or not) who do not have insurance, lack access to dental care, or cannot afford emergency care. VIII Teens with disabilities receive training, support and counseling through various JVS programs. Summer Club Scene provides recreational and employment opportunities and teaches daily living skills. School-to-Work transition programs help students make a successful transition to work, technical training programs or college. JVS guides young people with disabilities through internships and job shadowing experiences where they can explore a variety of careers to help determine their life paths.

JVS' spectrum of senior adult services helps older adults through different stages of their lives. I Senior Service Corps (SSC) provides structured volunteer activities and camaraderie for older adults who would otherwise face isolation. The participants, many of whom remain in the program well into their 90's, work on mailings and other projects for local non-profits. The non-profit agencies benefit from up to 15,000 volunteer hours annually, while the senior volunteers enjoy being active and engaged. In addition to the socialization, the SSC volunteers benefit from vital social work supports. SSC staff can identify participants' potential health and safety issues and make appropriate referrals. SSC volunteers experience improved health, self-image, quality of life and friendships, all of which help their family caregivers as well. II JVS' Memory Club is for seniors with memory concerns, which may include mild cognitive impairment, early Alzheimer's disease or related disorders. Memory Club members enjoy socialization in addition to memory-boosting tips and techniques. Physical exercise, field trips and support groups further enhance the program. III The Dorothy and Peter Brown Jewish Community Adult Day Program is a non-sectarian program run jointly by JVS and Jewish Senior Life, with a Center at each agency's campus. The Brown Program serves adults with Alzheimer's disease and related dementia disorders and supports their family caregivers with respite and counseling. The program is considered to be state-of-the-art by virtue of its offerings of individualized care and attention, therapeutic activities, socialization and recreation, creative music and art expression, and spiritual and cultural support. Transportation services and flexible scheduling make the Brown Program accessible to all in the community.
