Form 990, Part VI, Line 4 Significant changes to organizational documents	The Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws were updated in 2018. Changes were made to the bylaws to allow the current board to determine the size of the board and the executive committee, rather than following pre-set minimums and maximums, and also to consolidate certain classes of members. The conflict of interest wording was removed from the bylaws given there is a separate, stand alone, policy that is in place. Various language throughout both documents was updated to reflect current statutory language, as well as adding a requirement that the bylaws are reviewed at least every five years.
