Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
With more than 30 years of high impact work, Michigan Women's Foundation is devoted to fostering economic empowerment for Michigan's women and girls through philanthropy and investment. In response to a compelling need that exists still today for women to further advance their social, economic and professional well-being to an equitable level in society, MWF and its partners and supporters have committed financially and intellectually to leaving this world a better place for women and girls. MWF works to eliminate barriers to economic and social equality by developing a scalable model across Michigan, which provides access to capital and a strong ecosystem for women starting and growing businesses, creates and supports programs that develop the next generation of young women leaders, and seeks to solve problems that disproportionately affect women and girls.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Foundation is exempt from income taxes under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation is also exempt from state income taxes. However, any unrelated business income may be subject to taxation. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the organization and recognize a tax liability if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS or other applicable taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Foundation and has concluded that as of September 30, 2017 and 2016, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements. The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.
