Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The 990 is received by the Organization's President and Executive Director who review the return for accuracy. The Form 990 is made available to the board after review. After any concerns are addressed, the President signs and files the return.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The board has adopted a conflict of interest policy. The board members are required to disclose any conflict of interest that arises at any point throughout the year. They have a duty to disclose before entering into a contract or transaction with an interested person. The remaining board members then decide if a conflict exists and whether to engage in the transaction or arrangement. The board members must complete a new conflict of interest disclosure form annually.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The executive committee establishes reasonable compensation levels on a position-by-position basis. The committee obtains appropriate and comparable compensation market data including data from similarly situated organizations for functionally comparable positions, availability of similar specialties in the geographic area, and independent compensation surveys by nationally recognized independent firms. The committee then recommends salary increase reassessments based on external and internal equity. Once the compensation is determined, the basis for the determination of the reasonable compensation is documented and retained by the corporation.
