Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	On January 1, 2009, the Organization adopted new accounting guidance concerning provisions for uncertain income tax positions. This clarified the accounting for income taxes by prescribing a minimum probability threshold that an uncertain tax position must meet before a financial statement benefit is recognized. The minimum threshold is defined as a tax position that is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There was no effect of the adoption of this guidance. The Organization recognizes accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax position, if any, as part of the income tax provision. There were no income tax related interest and penalties recorded for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2018. The income tax returns of the Organization are subject to examination by the IRS and other various taxing authorities, generally for three years after they were filed.

Amended Explanation	This 2017 tax return is being amended to report differences due to a copier lease that was capitalized, a change to the restricted net assets and changes to the board members. The copier lease capitalization changed the statement of functional expenses in Part IX of the 990. Lines 20, 22 and 24D all changed as a result of additional depreciation, interest expense and less equipment rental expense. These changes also affected the Balance Sheet Part X Line 10, assets, and line 23, liabilities both increased due to the new capital asset and respective liability. Net assets also changed as a result of the additional expense. Reconciliation of Net Assets Part XI was changed due to the changes in expenses previously noted. Schedule D Part IV line 1e was changed to reflect the capitalized copier lease, and Schedule D Part XI line 1 was changed to agree to the audited financial statements. In addition, restricted net assets was lowered and unrestricted net assets increased due to a release in restrictions not previously reported. Lastly, since the previously filed tax return, the board members have changed. These changes due to the election are shown on Part VII of the 990.
