Part X, Line 2	The Organization is required to assess whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination on the technical merits of the position assuming the taxing authority has full knowledge of all information. If the tax position does not meet the more likely than not recognition threshold, the benefit of that position is not recognized in the financial statements. The Organization has determined there are no amounts to record as assets or liabilities related to uncertain tax positions.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Procedures to monitor the use of grants include on-site monitoring visits during the year, review of annual audit reports of the grantees, and constant communication with grantees. On-site visits include reviews of files and are compared with information entered in the shared database, procedural reviews and discussions with management. Program personnel review activity of the grant recipients on an on-going basis by reviewing activity in the shared database and review of various financial and program reports required of the grantees. Grants to individuals require authorization by case managers and supporting documentation prior to payment being made. There are a large amount of grants to individuals that are to pay for tuition and books, these are normally paid directly to the institution and the organization is listed on account.
