Part I, Line 2	Procedures to monitor the use of grant funds include on-site monitoring visits throughout the year, reviews of annual audited financial statements of the grant recipients, and constant communication with the grant recipients. On-site visits include reviews of files and comparisons with information entered in a shared database, procedural reviews, and discussions with the grant recipient's management personnel. Program personnel review activity of the grant recipients on an on-going basis by reviewing activity in the shared database and review of various financial and program reports required of the grant recipients. Grants to individuals require authorization by case managers and supporting documentation prior to payment being made. Grants to individuals primarily include payments for tuition and books and payments are generally made directly to the institution with the organization listed on the account.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The prepared Form 990 is reviewed by the organization's management and directors of the governing body before the return is filed with the Internal Revenue Service

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	All members of the governing body must complete, sign, and submit a conflict of interest disclosure statement annually. The signed statements are retained on file at the organization's administrative office. Anything that comes up in a meeting of the governing body or a committee that indicates a possible conflict of interest must be stated by the members involved. It is then up to the governing body or committee to determine if a conflict of interest exists. If it is determined there is a conflict of interest, then various information must be recorded in the minutes as specified in the conflict of interest policy, including who has the conflict of interest, the nature of the conflict of interest, and other information as needed. No discussion or voting on the issues is allowed by the person who has a conflict of interest relative to them.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The members of the organization's executive committee annually conduct a performance evaluation of the President and CEO and approve the President and CEO's compensation as part of the annual budgeting process. The executive committee uses compensation information compiled by The Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development specifically for the directors of the workforce development boards to determine the President and CEO's compensation. The deliberations and decisions on the annual budget and the President and CEO's compensation are documented in the minutes of the meetings of the executive committee. A staff compensation study was last conducted in 2016 to determine the compensation of officers and key employees and was presented to the personnel and finance committee for recommendation to the governing body for approval.
