Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
The Racine Friendship Clubhouse has been helping adults living with mental illness for over 20 years. The program helps participant members gain real life experience, it prepares them for future jobs, and gives them opportunities to create brand new friendships. The Clubhouse focuses on participant members strengths, and really lets each and every individual shine. The Racine Friendship Clubhouse believes that each participant member is responsible for his or her own recovery, and the staff works to create a healthy environment for their participant members to grow and learn. Through this program, participant members learn about themselves as individuals, and most of all, they get to be a part of something bigger than just their mental illnesses. They learn to embrace what makes them different and use it to enrich their own lives. Racine Friendship Clubhouse, Inc operates using the Clubhouse model of psychosocial education. There are over 300 clubhouses worldwide and only 5 in Wisconsin.
