Schedule D, Part VI Income Taxes	The YMCA has received a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that it is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (IRC), as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3), except for income taxes pertaining to unrelated business income. The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) guidance requires tax effects from uncertain tax positions to be recognized in the financial statements only if the position is more likely than not to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. Management has determined that there are no material uncertain positions that require recognition in the financial statements. Additionally, no provision for income taxes is reflected in these financial statements. Interest and penalties would be recognized as tax expense, however, there are no interest and penalties recognized in the statement of activities. The YMCA's tax returns are subject to possible examination by taxing authorities. With few exceptions, tax returns essentially remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the date the returns were filed.

FORM 990 PART IV, LINE 11F - INCOME TAXES	Income Taxes - The Organization is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and similar state provisions, though it is subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. The Organization has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. The Organization has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.
