In 2017, ninety teens participated in the Horizons STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics) Program. The program focused on a variety of topics, such as critical thinking and problem-solving skills, effective communication, using the Scientific Method, and college and/or career readiness. Students in the summer program took part in a project to design a community garden using STEAM skills they had learned in other program modules, such as calculating mass, volume and area to determine how many plants could grow in the garden, using color theory to create an attractive garden design, and learning to predict rainfall and daylight hours. The students also took part in career-exploration exercises. Ninety-five percent (99%) of youth represent communities of color, including 50% African American, 35% Latino, 14% Somali and 1% Other. The Horizons Youth Program aims to eliminate the achievement gap through a combined curriculum of academic, empowerment, and project based activities.

Supplemental Information

| Return Reference | Explanation |
|------------------|---|
| Pt X, Line 2 | SCC follows the guidance in the income tax standard regarding the recognition and measurement of uncertain tax positions. The guidance clarifies the accounting for the uncertainty in income taxes recognized in the entity's financial statements. The guidance further prescribes recognition and measurement of tax provisions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return that are not certain to be realized. The application of this standard has no impact on the Organization's financial statements. The Organization's tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal, state and local authorities. The tax returns for the years 2011-2015 are open to examination by federal, state and local authorities. |
