Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	It is the policy of Relate that the compensation paid to its employees is reasonable and competitive in relation to comparable positions in similar organizations, subject to budgetary considerations. The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors serves as the compensation committee with regard to setting the Executive Director's compensation. The Executive Director will set compensation in consultation with the Clinical Director, and annually with the Finance Committee and the Board. Members of these groups with a conflict of interest must recuse themselves from such action and may not participate in nor be present during any discussions, deliberations, or decisions of either the Executive, Finance Committee or Board. The Executive Committee sets the compensation of the Executive Director, and approves the compensation of all employees on the form 990. The Executive Director salary is presented at an annual board meeting for final approval. The Executive Director sets the compensation of all other employees in accordance with the procedures set out in its Compensation Policy. The Executive Committee and Executive Director use comparability data prior to and in connection with the determination and approval of all compensation and benefits data from comparative tax exempt and, in some cases, taxable organizations for functionally comparable positions requiring similar skills, education, and experience, the location of the organization, independent pay surveys, the number of employees and the assets, budget or revenues supervised, and any other unusual challenges. The Executive Director documents all aspects of all proceedings regarding the comparability data. These processes were last performed in December of 2018.
