Name: Powderhorn Park Neighborhood Association

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

PPNA is a 39-year-old community centered organization that uses a variety of events, programs, and advocacy related initiatives to advance its mission. This includes three missional pillars that aim to facilitate community engagement, embrace a diversity of voices, and foster community and economic development. Annually, the association recruits and coordinates the support of over two-hundred volunteers to bring events like its 28th annual Powderhorn Art Fair to life, and to call for additional public and private resources to support livability and safety alongside dozens of community partners. PPNA understands it plays a critical role in helping to collect, analyze, and report-out key insights from across the community.
