Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Recovery Services Division (Substance Abuse) The Recovery Services Division consists of licensed residential and outpatient treatment services for Substance Use Disorder for adult men and women. Residential programs include skilled nursing services. Programs for both genders have integrated community mental health professionals to provide services to clients with co-occurring behavioral problems. Additional services include family therapy through collaboration with the University of Minnesota, day care for women with children through PICA/Head Start, recovery coaching, parenting coaching, and transportation. In 2018, a total of 590 unique adult clients received treatment services.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Housing Division RS EDEN takes an active role in developing and operating affordable housing for homeless individuals and families, many who are recovering from substance abuse. RS EDEN's "affordable supportive housing" includes on-site services to assure tenants have the resources and support necessary to sustain their housing. Alliance Apartments, Portland Village, Central Avenue Apartments, Seventh Landing, Jackson Street Village, Lindquist Apartments, Emanuel Housing and Dillon Apartments are examples of RS EDEN's affordable supportive housing options. All RS EDEN supportive housing developments include on-site case management, employment assistance, sober social activities and referral assistance. Housing options for youth, single people and families are available. RS EDEN collaborates with other service providers to develop, operate and offer consultation on supportive housing services, management and development. RS EDEN provided housing for 797 tenants in 2018.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Corrections Division The Corrections Division encompasses three licensed correctional halfway houses, an independent living program, and the Sentence to Service program. The Corrections Division holds federal, state, and county contracts to provide residential and non-residential accountability services to adult clients and some dependent minors. Ancillary services include case management, employment, housing, behavioral, mental, and physical health, as well as other transition needs. Education and support groups are available at all locations. In 2018 the residential corrections and Sentence to Service programs served 528 men and 184 women.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is organized as a Minnesota nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3), qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(viii), and has been determined not to be a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2). The Organization is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Organization is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purpose. The Organization files an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS to report its unrelated business taxable income. The Organization believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the consolidated financial statements. The Organization would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
