Biblical Justice - Advocacy & Public Policy CCDA has a long-standing commitment to the confrontation of injustice. Living and working in our communities gives us a unique lens to the pain and systemic injustices that impact those we care about. Sharing Jesus' compassion and His commitment to kingdom justice is the origin of our advocacy and organizing. While we recognize that there are many injustices that need confrontation and are supporting those issues in an active way, as an association we are strategically working on the following three platform issues: immigration, mass incarceration and education reform.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statements of activities. As of December 31, 2015, CCDA had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. CCDA files information tax returns in the U S and various states. CCDA is generally no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2012.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared and reviewed by an independent CPA firm. The form is then reviewed by management and presented to the Finance Committee before filing. The Finance Committee, led by the Board Treasurer, is responsible for financial oversight of the organization. The board also receives a copy of the Form 990 before filing with the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy is provided to each Board Member at the annual meeting. Members and Officers must sign a statement acknowledging they've received, read, understand, and agree to comply with the policy. The statements are reviewed by the CEO. If new conflicts arise, members must promptly disclose. If a true conflict exists (majority vote by board), that member would be precluded from discussion and voting on the matter. Violations of the policy result in appropriate disciplinary or corrective action from the governing board.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Line 15a - Compensation for the CEO is decided by the Board of Directors. The board uses comparable market data in the determination process and records its deliberation and decision in the board minutes. Line 15b - The organization did not compensate any other officers or key employees. Therefore, this question was answered no in accordance with the instructions.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available upon request.
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c	The organization's Finance committee assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of its independent accountant. This process has not changed since the prior year.
