Footnote for uncertain tax position under FIN 48 (Part X)	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statement of activities. As of September 30, 2016, Second Chances owes more than $2,600 of tax penalties, which is included within accrued payroll taxes and penalties in the statement of financial position. Second Chances had no other uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. Second Chances is generally no longer subject to United States federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for tax years before 2012.
